LOCAL BRIEFS

SL business nabs a Governor's Fitness Award

LANSING — A Spring Lake fitness business is one of 18 Michigan companies, organizations and individuals being honored with 2012 Governor's Fitness Awards.

EcoTrek Fitness is among three named to the Extraordinary Event/Organization Award. Cari Draft is the owner and founder.

The other two award-winners in the category are Oakwood

Red October Run of Dearborn and the Brighton-based Southeastern Livingston County Recreation Authority.

The awards will be handed out April 26 at a special event in Lansing hosted by Michigan Fitness Foundation. At the event, Lt. Gov. Brian Calley will showcase inspiring stories from Michigan communities.
